

When God Leads and Guides

CHILDREN'S BIBLE MINISTRY | BELARUS

Yaroslav and his family left their life in a city to serve the Lord in a village. They purchased a small house where they hold Bible studies and prayer meetings. One of the local pastors began to talk against Yaroslav. But Yaroslav and his wife continue to invite people to their home and even started a Bible study for kids.

A single mother in their village, who was raising three children, became ill with cancer. Yaroslav visited and told her about God's love. He did what he could to help in this difficult situation. One evening, Yaroslav was informed that the woman was much worse. His family was asked to take her children into their home. The children already knew Yaroslav from Bible class.

That night, the woman passed away, and her children became orphans. Their relatives didn't want them, so they were going to an orphanage. Yaroslav and his wife decided to adopt them. The children were very happy because they knew they would be part of a family who loves God.

One of the children was baptized this year. No one could have imagined what God was going to do in all of their lives because one man obeyed God's call.

During 2021:

26,228 children and youth committed their lives to Jesus!

More Than We Can Imagine

STARTING NEW CHURCHES | UKRAINE

Nikita was studying at a culinary college in Belarus and commuted there by train. While riding the train one day, Nikita met Kirill, a follower of Jesus. They began talking about the Bible every day during their commute.

"Nikita showed interest, and I invited him to attend our Bible study group," Kirill says. "He liked the group and began going with me regularly. When summer came, he attended a summer Bible camp with my friends and me. Nikita was very active in the camp and made many new friends."

Nikita especially enjoyed the conversations the group shared around the campfire during summer camp. He asked important questions about faith, God and the history of Christianity. And on the last day of camp, he asked one of the leaders to talk with him in private.

At the next Bible study group meeting, Nikita shared that he had accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior during summer camp. Everyone joined him in praising God! A few months later, Nikita was baptized. When we step forward in faith, God is always there to lead and guide us.

DISCIPLINING NEW BELIEVERS | CAMBODIA

Chantrea worked at a factory for a long time and later married a security guard there. But they never earned enough money.

"I had to stand for hours to do my job," Chantrea says. "I began to have trouble breathing, and my health wasn't good. I had to quit. This made life even more difficult. I was hopeless. I felt like I was living on a boat in the middle of a river."

One day, Piseth, a follower of Jesus, came to her house. He told her that she could find hope in God's Word and in the love of Jesus. She still remembers the verses he shared from Psalm 40 and 1 Peter 1. "I listened to this Good News and heard the words from God," she says. "Then I received Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. I believed God's promises for my life because I heard them from the Bible."

Today, Chantrea is happier and healthier than ever before. She has a new job, and she sees all the blessings that God is providing. "We do our best to show our neighbors that Jesus Christ is in our lives," she says. "We share the Gospel and God's Word with them regularly."
